Annual Nominations

The Vermont School Counselor Association is seeking nominations for its annual awards, to be presented at the 2010 Fall Conference. Below are the criteria for the James F. Cawley Award and the Outstanding New Counselor Award. Please consider nominating a colleague who you feel best represents the profession.

James F. Cawley Award

The Outstanding Counselor of the Year Award is named in honor of its first recipient, Jim Cawley. The award is given to a VTSCA member who has made distinctive contributions to school counseling by bringing outstanding innovation to the development of counseling for Vermont youth.

Outstanding New Counselor Award

The Outstanding New Counselor Award recognizes the outstanding work and contributions made to the counseling profession by a person who has worked as a counselor for under five years.

Deadline for nominations: September 1, 2010

Letters of Nomination should be sent to:

Sally McCarthy
